All agreed that there was a sequence of events in the body that led to a crisis, and that this crisis was the line of demarcation between love that was an expression of desire and volition, and love that was governed entirely by processes pertaining to chronic diseases - those in which effects reinforced causes in a way that led to depression, madness, or death from physical causes. Misschien zal de gebruikte methode niet iedereen bevredigen. Studies, p. De situ orbis libri duo. Wadding, Scriptorum; N. During his lectorate, he composed a work of moral theology that until now has remained unedited Cf.
