The Jews had limited autonomy, but full rights to practice their religion, as well as full protection by their Muslim rulers, but this did not occur for free. Gardet and M. Waite, Edmund. Further Resources on Islamic History. This same historical consciousness is also present among Jews and Christians, as each group makes claims for positions and status in Islamic societies. Berlin: De Gruyter Mouton. Kim, Hodong. Islam in the Modern World. Fifth, it illustrates how the image of Islam and the integration of Muslims are burdened by Islamophobia, xenophobia and discrimination, further jeopardising attempts at integration. Muslim students are exempt from attending religious education if their numbers are small and do not justify a separate class.
