Bultmann, Rudolf. In his commentary on the passage, Justo L. Luke placed the Zacchaeus story within the travel narrative because of two concerns. They concerned themselves with explaining the Christian teachings apologetics with the sacred writings and oral traditions. So I conclude that it was paramount in the heart of Zacchaeus to see Jesus, because he was willing to do whatever it took, even if it meant his pride, affluency, and reputation, just to get a glimpse of Him.
