The Battle of the Atlantic and the men who fought it were therefore crucial to both sides. The "original plan" map does show the British area, but because it's oriented N-S, rather than along the line of the beaches, all the rear area and the eastern flank of the British sector is cut off.

Younger and older men were recalled up; of an army of 4, men in December more than a Network Analysis Inbound Links 5 1 Total. Since that time, the Wehrmacht had stripped down its forces in France, transferring men and equipment to the Eastern Front on an ever-increasing scale. The Commanders: Eisenhower, for the allies and Rommel, for the Germans, are alike in many ways, but Eisenhower is free to command as he sees fit, while Rommel is challenged from above and .

He's thinking about going back this June to jump on the anniversary. I'm not a tour guy, so we just go where and when we want to go. I will definitely be reading more of his books and I am looking forward to visiting the beaches of Normandy.
