At the end of each week, students will reflect in one paragraph of words in their journal on how God is growing them to be more like Christ. Visit Seller's Storefront. I recently visited a congregation that requires a four Sunday new member class - led by laypersons.

Rather than abolish the law, Wesley understands that the good news of the Incarnation is that we are made in the image of God. Buy with confidence, excellent customer service! Maddox, Randy L.

The difficulty that Wesley outlines in the following excerpt directly bespeaks the heart of the matter. In his entry for October 28, Wesley includes the entire text of a letter he had written to Sir James Lowther, a wealthy man who had written Wesley about giving to the poor.
