Her seminal book Conscious Evolution is available in an updated version. I like the point Teilhard makes very. The concept of Equivalence—theoretical frameworks that deserve to coexist by virtue of offering different perspectives—should be part of the basic training of scientists, along with the concept of paradigms that replace each other and the process of hypothesis formation and testing that takes place within each paradigm and equivalent framework.

We end our introduction with an observation about the tone of the commentary. The Soft Terrible Music This is in contrast with mutualism symbiosis in which both organisms benefit from each other, amensalism, where one is harmed while the other is unaffected, and parasitism, predation, and competition, where one benefits while the other is harmed. While recollection is fully experiential, the truth of the form must be supported by empiricism, facilitated by inner discourse and inner-deliberation anamnesis.
