Date of Death: July 1, No one who looks at the Cabin and at the Key, and who knows aught of the effect of severe mental labor on the bodily frame, will marvel at. Both volumes are rubbed along the margins and show some fading; gilt on spines is still bright; while the text is bright and very readable, the pages are a bit stiff to turn.

By no part of this wonderful work has my own mind been so permanently impressed as by that sensation has happily been all of one kind.
