Had no clue that you even knew my name, but I appreciate your response, and I graciously accept the apology of the person that you are close to that wrote the article. Finally, you make a huge assumption that the pro-LRT folks on this site are all downtowners. Airlines cut flight staff, which works until a crash and then passengers escape while hauling their carry-on baggage, as happened in the San Francisco catastrophe.

the newer series, Henry is portrayed as not too bright and sometimes really worrisome, as shown in multiple episodes. I would also like to see an honest costing of what it would take to convert the existing short portion of subway on Sheppard to LRT.
