How can one define what is "worthy" of being written up as history, really? To demonstrate this knowledge throughout the stages of English language acquisition, comprehension of text requires additional scaffolds such as adapted text, translations, native language support, cognates, summaries, pictures, realia, glossaries, bilingual dictionaries, thesauri, and other modes of comprehensible input. Caesar had marched twelve miles into the interior when he was recalled by the news that a great storm had shattered or damaged a large portion of his fleet. Studentsshouldreadandwriteonadailybasis. Past misfortunes had taught the Britons the penalties of disunion. In two or three generations a prudent statesman would no more think of governing England without a Parliament than without a king.
