Catholic Epistles. Here we cannot avoid the Bible truth that the saved are very much predestined in the mind and heart of God Rom. Macedonia Ephesus. The production of such translations grew out of the insertion of vernacular glosses in biblical texts, as well as out of the production of biblical paraphrases and poetic renditions of stories from the life of Christ e. M eds. Most scholars today have abandoned these identifications, and recognize that the books were written by otherwise unknown but relatively well-educated Greek-speaking and writing Christians during the second half of the first century.
