There is an elasticity that lets one easily experience this gradient between beings rather than strict delineations.

LaGamma, Alisa, ed. One is forced to ask, even without expressing a negative. Some people who have witnessed these events would willingly acknowledge that the manifestations are indeed spiritual, but are not from God, despite the language of love and light which is almost always used. The gracious way in which Jesus deals with the woman is a model for pastoral effectiveness, helping others to be truthful without suffering in the challenging process of self-recognition "he told me every thing I have done", verse

These five methods are capable of application upon all the five planes of human existence. It is much more symptomatic that even this selection of a profession was actually motivated by hard times and financial woes.
